

Revenue Bureau Seeks Taxes On FHA 'Windfalls'

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators called on Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews today to tell of the chances for collecting additional taxes on "windfall profits" from postwar housing projects.

William Simon, counsel for the Senate Banking Committee in its housing probe, said, "I can't help but feel there still are income tax problems" for some builders who reaped fat returns on projects financed with government-insured mortgages.

Additional testimony also is expected about the affairs of Ian Woodner, a Washington and New York builder, this time from Franklin D. Richards, former Federal Housing Administration (FHA) commissioner and now a real estate consultant.

The dapper Woodner told the committee Wednesday he had hired Richards, shortly after his resignation as FHA commissioner, to help him win FHA approval to operate a swank Washington apartment hotel project he was building.

The request was granted, despite a contrary FHA policy on its insured projects, in a letter signed in 1952 by Clyde L. Powell, ousted last April as assistant FHA commissioner after 20 years with the agency.

Woodner testified, however, that Powell himself opposed the decision but was overruled by his superiors. And he denied that in getting more than 40 million dollars of FHA-insured mortgages on various projects he ever paid any bribes to Powell.

Powell Wednesday lost an effort to block a grand jury investigation of his activities with the housing agency.

Prison Walkout Branded Fizzle

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP)—A walkout of guards at the Indiana State Prison failed to affect the smooth operation of the big penitentiary today, and a state official said, "The whole strike is a flop."

The opinion came from Hugh P. O'Brien, chairman of the State Correction Department, who added that the walkout "had fizzled out."

However, pickets paraded for the second day at the prison's two main gates, and Merlin Griffith, vice president of the International Prison Union, said, "We'll whip O'Brien one way or another."

Griffith said he was satisfied with the way things were going and added, "If picket lines stay in operation as they have been we'll gain five men a day."

An undisclosed number of guards assigned to the midnight to 8 a.m. shift entered the prison on schedule Wednesday night by some entrance other than the picketed gates.

Prison officials had said a full shift of guards went on duty on schedule at 4 p. m. Wednesday. They could not be reached early today for a report on the number working on the midnight shift.

The guards at the big prison, which houses 2,274 inmates, are seeking a 40-hour week, improvement of working conditions and reinstatement of four guards fired last week. State officials, however, have refused to meet with the union, citing a state policy against official recognition of a union at a state institution.

Jewish Fast Ends

NEW YORK (AP)—Yom Kippur, the annual Jewish day of atonement, started at sundown Wednesday and ends today with the blowing of the shofar, or ram's horn. The 24 hours of fasting concludes a 10-day period of penitence starting with Rosh Hashanah, the Hebrew new year.

Plane Blows Up At Willows, Calif.; 4 Of 17 Survive

WILLOWS, Calif. (AP)—An Air Force B50 weather reconnaissance plane crashed, exploded and burned near here Wednesday night, killing at least 11 of the 17 men aboard.

Four enlisted men miraculously survived. Two crew members are missing and feared dead.

The big plane, on a routine mission from its base at Biggs Air Force Base in El Paso, Tex., dived out of murky skies and hit the earth with a shattering roar at 7:12 p.m. A huge ball of fire burst into the skies, visible for miles.

Sgt. Frank Imely, S. Sgt. Joseph E. Wittene and Airman 1st Class John B. Patton parachuted to safety at the last moment.

Nickel TV Gifts Reach $8,130

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. (AP)—It's been nearly four weeks now since Garry Moore television fans started sending nickels to Charles and Margaret Deibel in a nationwide campaign to make them rich.

The 26-year-old Deibels still don't dine on caviar or drive a gold-plated limousine. But since Sept. 11, the night Moore asked his television audience to send Mrs. Deibel a nickel apiece, the family bank account has grown by $8,130—the equivalent of 162,300 nickels.

The flood of letters which came poured in on the Deibels' modest home at the rate of 25,000 a day, has reached to 75 to 100 a day. Daily receipts have dropped from more than $1,000 to about $5 or $10.

Now the Deibels are chiefly concerned with their potential income tax and the letters and calls from people all over the country who want to share their nickel bonanza.

"Some people have asked us to send them up to $5,000," Mrs. Deibel said.

"We were told we'd get all sorts of strange requests and were advised to ignore them. So that's what we've done."

Mrs. Deibel says Moore has advised them they may not be taxed at all since each coin they received was a small personal gift.

Margaret Truman To Mix In Politics Again This Season

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Miss Margaret Truman plans to participate in the Democratic political campaign this fall.

The daughter of former President Truman has agreed to help in the Missouri 4th District Congressional fight. Republican incumbent Jeffrey Hilleison, seeking re-election, is opposed by Democrat George Christopher, a former congressman.

William Pointdexter, district chairman for the Missouri Young Democrats, said yesterday Miss Truman had agreed to head a "Youth for Christopher" campaign.

Vice Lord Gets Life As Killer At Phenix City

By RED THOMAS

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—A jury struck a blow at Phenix City's tottering empire of crime Wednesday night with a life sentence verdict against the first gambler brought to trial during the wholesale vice cleanup here.

Night club owner E. L. Cook, who readily admitted killing one man and wounding two others in a wild outburst of gunplay at his honkytonk four years ago, was convicted of first-degree murder.

Cook, denounced by state attorneys as a "czar of vice and crime," had gone unprosecuted until the crackdown on racketeering began 15 weeks ago.

A grand jury had refused to indict him shortly after the killing and he went free until the investigation was reopened by state authorities directing the current vice cleanup.

The 40-year-old Cook, whose notorious 601 Club on Phenix City's once roaring Dillingham Street featured unrestrained gambling 24 hours a day seven days a week, took the verdict quietly but his attractive brunette wife screamed, "Oh no!" and sobbed hysterically that "God will punish them for this."

Waves Cause Damage

PORT HURON (AP)—Strong winds Wednesday drove waves from Lake Huron onto beaches and breakwaters from Port Huron northward. Considerable property damage was reported. Small boats were warned off the lake. Coast Guard officials said the high winds were expected to end today.

Tulsa Homes Over Oil Field May Be Blown Up Any Time

By BILL SANSHING

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A 40-acre residential area in southeast Tulsa is located over abandoned oil and gas wells that are capable of blowing up at any time, gas and petroleum experts told a gathering of property owners Wednesday night.

Lee Miller already has abandoned his home because of "an overpowering odor of gas" that filled the house. He told the meeting of more than 100 persons the trouble was not in gas lines but from a well drilled in 1913 and plugged four years later.

Also located in the Loma Linda development is the Eisenhower Elementary school.

Eisenhower principal Vernon Jackson told the group: "I am not an alarmist. I do not plan to take my own children out of school."

At that, another father spoke up: "You can count mine absent now."

The parents were about evenly divided over whether to take their youngsters from school.

Vance Smith, Oklahoma Natural Gas Co. representative, said his company has checked the school and found it safe. He promised the firm would keep a constant watch of the area.

He said records showed at least 20 wells in the half section in which the school is located. He also disclosed the area is honeycombed with old coal mines.

Asked how he described the situation, Smith replied: "In one word—dangerous!"

Available records showed that six wells were not capped, but filled only with mud and sand. The task of locating all the wells was said to be almost impossible.

Oil company geologists said the recent drought possibly might have let the underground gas escape through cracks in the ground.

Pilot Prevents Chicago Crash

CHICAGO (AP)—An Air Force Pilot, whose F86D jet caught fire 24,000 feet over Chicago Wednesday night, prevented the flaming plane from crashing in the metropolitan area by guiding it to the open countryside.

The pilot, 1st Lt. Edward F. Schroeder, 25, of St. Louis, parachuted to safety on a farm about 10 miles west of O'Hare Field, on the city's Northwest Side. He suffered minor bruises.

Schroeder, attached to the 42nd Fighter Interceptor Squadron at O'Hare Field, said his plane burst into flames after an explosion. Another flier with whom Schroeder had been staging a mock dogfight followed him and radioed directions for a ground crew which picked him up.

The plane was located today in a field two miles southwest of South Elgin, about 20 miles west of O'Hare Field.

Touchy Private Power Policy Of GOP May Be Brought To Showdown

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration showed signs today of pressing for a pre-election showdown on its politically touchy plan to feed private power into lines of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Calling Wednesday for a review by the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee of the plan, it asked for the waiver of a legal provision which would keep the contract from taking effect before next year unless the committee okays an earlier date.

Opponents of the plan, known as the Dixon-Yates contract, raised new protests of "skulduggery" and "scandalous."

Reports circulated Wednesday that the contract had been approved. An aide said Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) had received word to that effect. The Atomic Energy Commission said only the contract "has not been signed."

At the Summer White House in Denver, Asst. Presidential Press Secretary Murray Snyder said, "We know nothing about it."

Sen. Langer (R-ND), chairman of a Senate antimonopoly subcommittee which has been looking into some aspects of the proposal, called more witnesses to a hearing today.

Only two subcommittee members, Senators Langer and Kefauver (D-Tenn.), have been active at the hearings. Both oppose the Dixon-Yates contract.

Economy Claimed
Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY) announced the Atomic Energy Committee, which he heads, will open a public exploration of the contract's terms, probably starting next Wednesday.

Eisenhower has directed AEC to negotiate a contract with the Dixon-Yates group for power which would replace that which TVA supplies to AEC plants. Dixon-Yates would build a 107-million-dollar steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., and the electricity generated would be served to TVA customers over TVA lines.

Making up the Dixon-Yates group are Middle South Utilities, Inc., headed by Edgar H. Dixon, and the Southern Co., headed by E. A. Yates.

Administration spokesmen have termed the plan the most economical and practical way of supplying future power needs of the area. Foes have said it will harm and perhaps eventually destroy TVA and will cost the government more than a TVA steam-generating plant.

Wide Strip Of U. S. Gets Taste Of Frost; Gulf Coast Swelters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was a frosty morning over wide areas in the eastern third of the nation as a large mass of cool air pushed into the South and East.

But it was hot over Florida and along the Gulf Coast with record breaking heat reported Wednesday in many Southern cities.

Below freezing temperatures were reported early today in a belt from North Dakota and Minnesota eastward through Wisconsin most of Michigan and upstate New York and most of New England. Readings were near freezing from a few sections of northern Iowa and northern Illinois.

Coolest spots were Grand Marais and Pellston, Mich., with 23 degrees. Skies were clear over most of the cool belt except in the South and Southeast, which reported cloudy skies and scattered thundershowers.

Rains Flood Three Pecos Valley Towns

ROSSELL, N. M. (AP)—Heavy rains in nearby mountains sent flash floods racing into three Pecos Valley cities today. The National Guard was evacuating families in Roswell, Artesia and Hagerman.

Rains in the Sacramento Mountains, which march along the western edge of the eastern New Mexico River Valley, sent floods of water pouring into the three towns. Crest of a reported 27-foot wall of water rushing off the Sacramento toward Roswell had not yet hit the city early today. But water was flowing into town.

Roswell, a city of 30,000 is 200 miles southeast of Albuquerque. Families were being evacuated, but no estimate could be made of the number affected. The National Guard said it was trying to control "panic and extreme nervous tension" among residents of some areas of the city.

Twelve National Guard trucks at Artesia, 44 miles south of Roswell, evacuated 10 families there early today. Men on one National Guard truck sent to the Village of Hagerman, between Roswell and Artesia, reported conditions there were "pretty bad." There was no immediate elaboration.

The Roswell flood crest marched towards the city, spreading as it went, after a 10-mile square reservoir and diverting channels failed to contain the water west of the city.

In Roswell, the gymnasium at New Mexico Military Institute and the new senior high school building were opened to care for evacuees.

A hard, steady rain continued to fall on the city. Travel west of Roswell was halted and discouraged to the south and north.

CONDUCTORS STRIKE—R. O. Hughes, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, has ordered a nationwide strike, Oct. 19, against the Pullman Company. The walkout will hit all Pullman cars in the nation except hospital troop trains. The conductors are asking a five-cent hourly increase and a third week of vacation.

Farm Grumbling And Job Layoffs Pep Up Michigan Democrats

(Editor's Note: This is another of several stories by roving Associated Press reporters analyzing the campaign in key states.)

By DON WHITEHEAD

DETROIT (AP)—Unemployment in the automobile industry, fear of more job losses, and grumbling among dairy farmers form a triple menace today that is frightening to Michigan Republicans in the campaign for control of Congress.

GOP leaders in this normally Republican state are wary of the turn of economic events which has given Democrats their most effective campaign ammunition in years.

Upswing Too Late?
One out of 10 workers is idle in Detroit. Automotive and defense plants, booming a year ago, have laid off workers. The pinch of unemployment has been felt in most of Michigan's industrial cities. The auto industry's shutdown for model changeovers has been the most extended of any in 15 years. The state's jobless total has been estimated as high as 300,000.

Michigan's Employment Security Commission says the peak of unemployment appears to be past and that indications are workers will flock back to the plants as new model production begins to roll.

But the politicians say any such improvement in employment is coming too late to help the Republicans at the polls in November.

And upstate, there is reported political ferment among the dairy farmers hit by the Eisenhower administration's cutback on price supports for dairy products.

Made Main Issue
The Democrats, led by Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams, with strong organized labor support, are hammering hard on the theme that a Republican administration both statewide and nationally will mean more economic distress. They have made all other issues secondary to this one in appealing to the farm, labor and small businessman vote. The Republicans' great hope is that Eisenhower's popularity will offset the dissatisfaction with the economic situation.

Patrick V. McNamara, the Democrats' U. S. Senate candidate, said in an interview:

"The No. 1 issue in the race is the upset of our economy under the Republicans. I've found that the businessmen upstate have been as hard hit generally as the working man. It's a sort of chain reaction."

"The simple truth is the Republicans promised the voters too much and a reaction has set in. It's a case of broken promises—and I think the Democrats are going to profit from it."

Republicans counter with the argument that the economic letdown was the result of shifting from a wartime to a peacetime economy.

Williams No. 1 Target
Sen. Homer Ferguson, chairman of the GOP Senate Policy Committee and a candidate for re-election, said:

"The Democrats are making unemployment the sole issue. But I say the issue is peace or war. Of course, we could have jobs for everyone if we went to war with Russia. But that isn't the way to do it. We've got to be patient and work it out without a war."

Present indications are the Michigan election will be a hard fight all down the line with qualified observers leaning to this opinion:

"U. S. Senate race—Ferguson by a thin margin over McNamara in a hard fight."

Congressional races—The Democrats to pick up one and possibly two house seats.

But the real heat is being generated in the Republican campaign against Gov. Williams who is seeking an unprecedented fourth two-year term as chief executive.

A good many Republicans say if they can beat Williams, then they can pull down the other Democratic candidates with him. Their hopes are pinned on Donald S. Leonard, 51, former state and Detroit police commissioner, who appears to be the strongest candidate the Republicans have put into the gubernatorial race in six years.

Communist Leader Indicted For Teaching Revolution In U. S.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dr. Albert Emanuel Blumberg, former executive director of the Communist party in the United States, has been indicted on a charge of conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence.

A special federal grand jury returned the indictment Wednesday. Blumberg, picked up in New York last week, is alleged to have pursued some of his activities in the Philadelphia region. He is being held in $40,000 bail.

His wife, Dorothy Rose Blumberg, is serving a three-year term in the Women's Reformatory at Alderson, W. Va., for violation of the Smith Act. The charges against Blumberg also were made under the Smith Act.

Socialists Back Soviet Proposal For Unity Talks

By TOM REEDY

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government coalition closed ranks today against opposition Socialist support of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's bid for new four-power talks on German reunification.

Thomas Dehler, chairman of the Adenauer-allied Free Democrats, criticized Socialist demands that the West take some active step to meet with the Russians on the unity question. Dehler's party is the No. 2 group in the coalition.

Troop Withdrawal Included
Dehler said West German ratification of the London accord would not interfere with German unity efforts.

The Socialists, following up the offer made by Molotov in an East Berlin speech Wednesday night, also urged the formation of a European security pact within the framework of the United Nations.

The Soviet foreign minister said in his speech the Russians are willing to discuss any proposal on free German elections, a stumbling block in previous unity talks. He also called for the immediate withdrawal of all occupation troops from Germany.

Trouble For Adenauer
Western observers viewed Molotov's proposal as the opening blast in the Kremlin drive to torpedo West German ratification of the recent London reararmament agreement. The first West German reaction indicated the Soviet move may give the Chancellor trouble in his campaign to win approval at home for the proposed defense alliance with the West.

The nine powers participating in the London conference pledged themselves to continue to work for the peaceful reunification of Germany.

Since Adenauer's four-party coalition has the necessary two-thirds majority in the Bundestag, (lower house), the Chancellor had no need to count on support of the 151 Socialists. But he does need the 48 votes of the Free Democrats, the No. 2 faction in his coalition, whose leaders have been urging a new try at unifying the country.

New York Dock Workers Return

NEW YORK (AP)—Normal waterfront activities resumed today in the port of New York as first work gangs returned to the piers after the paralyzing two-day strike of 25,000 longshoremen.

Several of the great trans-Atlantic liners were in port and required hundreds of workers. Piles of cargo heaped on shipless docks elsewhere along the North River front gave employment to other gangs.

The 48-hour strike was the second to hit the world's busiest port within six months.

The International Longshoremen's Assn. won its demand for immediate wage retroactivity but in turn agreed to a 45-day no-strike pledge pending contract negotiations with the employers, represented by the New York Shipping Assn.

Beaton Raps Voting Record Of Rep. Knox

Harold Beaton, Democratic candidate for Congress, and James Hare, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, were principal speakers at a breakfast this morning at the House of Representatives. They were introduced by Wheaton Strom, county Democratic chairman.

Beaton, who was born at Wells and is a graduate of the Escanaba High School, is a son of the late Tom Beaton Sr. of Escanaba.

Beaton criticized his opponent, Rep. Victor Knox, "for voting against the farmer, the poorer school districts, the laborer and the veteran." Beaton also said that his opponent voted for the tidelands oil "giveaway" which, Beaton said, deprived school districts of needed financial aid.

The Democratic candidate further criticized the Republican incumbent for voting to cut appropriations for rural electrification and for rural telephone service.

Beaton said his platform includes non-recognition of Red China, opposition to admission of Red China to the United Nations, and for an air force second to none. The Demo candidate said that he will fight for the interests of veterans, laborers, farmers and small businessmen.

Beaton worked in Escanaba years ago as a day laborer at the Birds Eye Veneer Company and later as a track worker on the E&L Railroad, he said, and also taught rural schools at Rock and Danforth.

At present he is an attorney practicing in Washington, D. C., where he is general counsel of the American Legion Convention Corporation. His voting residence is St. Ignace where he once served as prosecuting attorney.

Hare said, "Gov. Williams needs a team to support him at Lansing. We have an excellent slate of state office candidates and we intend to give Gov. Williams the support he requires."

Boys Imprisoned In Shed For Six Hours

Two young Escanaba boys, 5 and 4 years old, found more adventure than they bargained for when they were accidentally imprisoned for about 6 hours in an old shed yesterday only a short distance from their homes.

Jack Hughes, 5, of 417 S. 16th St. and his chum, Rickie Ellison, 4, of 425 S. 16th St., entered a shed on the Herman Fenske property, 422 S. 14th St., at about 10 a. m. yesterday. The latch on the door fell and locked them inside.

Police received a report that they were lost and began searching for them. It was not until 4:20 p. m. yesterday, however, that passersby on the street heard the boys' screams and shouts and released them.

Police said they will have Fenske fix the latch on the shed, and Rickie and Jack vow they will never again enter old sheds seeking adventure.

Killing Frost Sweeps County

A killing frost swept over Delta County last night, plunging temperatures well below freezing. Unofficial reports peg the low at 16 near Wilson and 22 in the Cornell and Brampton areas. The official reading at the Post Office building in Escanaba was 31 shortly after daylight. Low official temperatures in the lower peninsula were 16 at Pelistion, and 18 at Cadillac.

Barometric pressure at Escanaba reached a record high of 30.75 inches this morning, the highest since 1931.

The cold air mass is slowly catching up with the high temperatures in the south but not before more heat records for October were broken. Before the cool air hit, a general range of 90 degree weather spread over Virginia, Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana. Montgomery, Ala. took top honors with an even 100. With the arrival of the cold air, Raleigh, N. C. dropped from 98 to 48. Similar drops occurred along the leading edge of the cold air mass.

Ask Parents Help To Curb Air Guns

The cooperation of parents in preventing youngsters from playing with and shooting air rifles and air pistols in Escanaba is asked by the Escanaba Safety Advisory Committee, according to Mrs. William Weycker Jr., president.

At last night's meeting of the Safety Advisory Committee in City Hall the discussion centered on methods of gaining cooperation of parents in keeping BB guns out of the hands of youngsters in the city. There is danger to the children in shooting air guns, besides the destruction of birds and the damaging of windows, it was pointed out.

Police Chief Jack Finn directed attention to the law which prohibits the firing of guns within the city limits. Police have confiscated about 100 air guns within the past year.

Pastors Oppose Proposal No. 4

Members of the Delta County Ministerial Association, meeting at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, here Wednesday, voiced their opposition to Proposal No. 4 which will be on the November state ballot. This proposal would allow amendment of the state constitution in a manner to "authorize lotteries to be conducted by non-profit charitable organizations."

The association urges voting against the proposal in view of widespread evidence in the United States and abroad that wherever so-called "charitable" lotteries are legalized, "charities" will be invaded by racketeers, their reputation will be hurt, generous giving will be discouraged, and fake charities will compete for donors."

Archbishop Joseph Rummel's banning of church bingo and lotteries in the New Orleans area was cited, his reasons being that experience there was proving that regular, voluntary support of churches and charities was being undermined, and persons trained in gambling by "charitable" lotteries were attracted to the "demoralizing atmosphere" of professional gambling enterprises. Also noted was Thomas E. Dewey's statement that "the entire history of legalized gambling shows that it has brought nothing but poverty, crime and corruption, demoralization of moral and ethical standards, and ultimately a lower living standard and misery for all the people."

The Ministerial Association also made plans for a county-wide Reformation Day Rally on Sunday, October 31, with Dr. Walter W. Horton as guest preacher. Plans were formulated to ask church children and youth to seek contributions for the U. N. Children's Emergency Relief Fund, in place of the traditional "trick or treat," on Halloween.

The Rev. Meldon Crawford, of Memorial Methodist Church, Gladstone, was elected president of the association for the current year. He succeeds Rev. James Bell who has resigned.

3,000 Mink Die Of Food Poisoning At Marinette Ranch

MARINETTE—Henry Luckert of Shore Drive, Marinette, said Wednesday that despite efforts by 30 persons who worked all day, 3,000 of his mink valued at $60,000 died.

Luckert said that 1,000 additional animals remained alive and had apparently survived an attack of food poisoning. He said he be-

Library Installs Micro-Film Reader

A micro-film reader, a machine which projects films of newspapers on the machine screen in regular newspaper size, was recently purchased for public use by Carnegie Library, 205 S. 7th St., as the result of funds received from state aid.

This machine is of much value to the library because a film takes up 15 times less room than a bound volume of newspapers, and the film is less likely to be damaged.

Current issues of the Escanaba Daily Press are now being filmed with plans of beginning to micro-film the back issues of the paper in the near future. Every three months, a film will be made of those newspapers. The Escanaba Daily Press owns a similar machine, which projects copies of newspapers for their private files.

3 Injured In Head-On Crash

Three persons were injured in a head on collision at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday on US-2 near the Ogatz River bridge. The injured are: Mrs. Viola Clark, 66, Ensign; Thomas Lehmus, 72, Ensign; Harry Louis Spicer, 65, Waco, Texas.

Spicer was traveling on the wrong side of the road when the accident occurred, according to State Police who investigated the accident.

Mrs. Clark suffered facial lacerations, possible internal injuries, and severe shock. Lehmus had several fractured ribs and facial and head lacerations. Spicer suffered possible internal injuries and facial lacerations. The three were taken to St. Francis Hospital by ambulance following the accident. State Police are continuing the investigation.

Another accident occurred yesterday afternoon when Theresa Louis, 20, 120 W. Prospect, Marquette, lost control of her car and landed in a ditch about 5 1/2 miles north of Rapid River. Miss Louis told investigating State Police that she was traveling north on US-41 when a deer ran across the road. She swung off the left side of the highway to avoid hitting the animal and tried to cut back when she lost control, she told the officers.

Frank Saunders, 18, Brantford, Ont., struck the rear of a car driven by Minnie Beauchamp, a farm census enumerator at 9:45 a. m. Wednesday on US-41 near Wilson.

Minnie Beauchamp had slowed down to make a left turn as an unidentified car and Saunders' car were coming behind her at an Rate increases approved were 13 to 15 cents for adults, five to eight cents for children and students ages five to 12, and from two tokens for 25 cents to three tokens for 40 cents.

All's Well That Ends Well, City Of Gladstone Discovers

ALL'S well that ends well. The Gladstone City Commission and the residents of Gladstone must certainly feel that way as a result of the favorable terms of sale of the city's $2,100,000 electric plant bonds.

Last June the city accepted the bid of Juran and Moody, Inc., St. Paul, at an interest rate of 3.69 percent. Legal technicalities raised by the bond bidders, however, ultimately resulted in the taking of new bids.

By that time, the city's plans for construction of the electric plant were well along, contracts awarded, etc. The unexpected development in the bond sale created some new problems with new headaches for the city commission.

The legal wrinkles, however, were ironed out and the bonds again offered for sale. This time Juran and Moody submitted an even more attractive offer—3 percent interest on bonds from April 1, 1957 to April 1, 1965 and 3.5 percent for the remaining bonds in the 30-year issue. The lower interest rate developed because of a favorable turn in the bond index between the two sale dates.

The result is a savings in interest to the city of $90,775 in the 30-year period. It is a substantial savings that resulted by accident, so to speak, but the Gladstone City Commission and the residents of the community are happy about it and with good cause.

AFL Aims For 35-Hour Work Week

THE AFL Executive Council has served notice on all and sundry that it now wants the standard work week legally cut to 35 hours, instead of the present 40 hours. And the legal minimum wage, it says, should be raised by 50 cents to a dollar and a quarter an hour.

There hardly can be any question that the average American working man will find these goals appealing—or that each is a forward step which sooner or later is bound to come. But there surely is doubt aplenty that today is the proper time.

Leaders of the AFL have argued that cutting the work week would help to relieve unemployment, which it places at "nearly five million." (The estimate made by the government is 1,700,000 lower.) It backs up the minimum-wage hike as a method for raising purchasing power.

Both arguments have serious flaws. The 35-hour work week, for instance, would leave many thousand industrial firms with two discouraging choices.

If they stuck to the same production level, based on 40 hours, they would have to pay time and a half for the extra five hours working time, or hire additional men who would not give them increased output. Since labor costs are high already, many concerns would fold. Others would increase prices, leading to more inflation which would cancel out most of the gains.

The firms' only other alternative would be to cut their production—a step which would mean, in the long run, more unemployment instead of less.

A raise in the minimum wage, of course, would radically increase labor costs in low-pay parts of the South. It would have an important impact on several large-scale industries, such as furniture, tobacco and novelty manufacturing.

There is certainly room for improvement here, but to force this improvement by law—at least at the present time—could be a bad mistake. Many smaller industrial firms would surely be knocked out of business.

A course that would seem much wiser is to seek such gains at the bargaining table, where both sides can make adjustments in accord with local conditions.

If the 35-hour work week and the higher minimum wage were put on the law books now, it is likely that both would boomerang. For a law which is forced by special interests before the economy is ready for it seldom, if ever, succeeds.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — This was the year when the Republican party had it within its power to make a substantial increase in the majority controlling both houses of Congress.

This was the year—just like 1934—when if a negative tide carried over from the presidential election victory of two years before, there was an opportunity to push the Republican strength to a peak.

This, indeed, was the prospect which faced the Republican party when it came into power in January 1953.

But almost immediately a mistake was made. There arose the fallacious belief that one man had won the presidential election and that his popularity was enough to carry future elections. What was overlooked was the negative habits of the American voter.

VOTE AGAINST TRUMAN

For the 1952 election was not won because of the popularity of Dwight Eisenhower. It was won because of the unpopularity of the Truman Administration. The stories of scandals in the RFC, mink coats and corruption in government had been appearing for more than a year before the presidential campaign began. Likewise, there were stories about the Alger Hiss case and the affinity for Communist doctrine in the State Department's policy toward China. There was a deep-seated resentment against the Korean war, which—though begun with a noble purpose—turned out to be an American burden with very little help from the Allies.

All these resentments accumulated in the issues of "communism, corruption and Korea," which gave the negative tide quite a momentum. Strictly speaking, it should be continuing now. For the mistakes which brought American misadventures in the far east arose under the Truman administration. The scandals in the housing administration being uncovered now should be creating resentment against the Democratic label.

But the Republican leadership muffed the ball. And the leader who muffed it was President Eisenhower himself. Tender in his attitude toward the Democratic party, which was in power when he served in high military posts, the President took the position that bygones had better be bygones. He scoffed at the idea of letting the Communists question become an issue, and all the Democrats rejoiced.

As a political leader, Mr. Eisenhower has failed his own party. Desperate efforts are being made now to get him at least to say something nice every few days about the Republican party. But history will record that, if the congressional elections are lost, it will be because the party leader in the White House refused to stand up for his party and hold the Democratic party accountable for the mistakes it had made in the past.

SWITCHER IS KEY

Mr. Eisenhower thinks there is some magic way by which voters can be indoctrinated in the statistics or the dry-as-dust recital of the legislative record of Congress under Republican control. His close friends tell him the "independent" vote is best captured by his sitting in an ivory tower aloof from the warfare of political parties. The concept conveyed to him of an "independent" is that of a voter who reads all the speeches and listens to all the radio and television programs and then, like a Supreme Court justice, profoundly weighs the pros and the cons and finally comes up with his verdict. No such species of "independent" voter exists in any appreciable number. The real key to American politics is the "switcher"—the voter who doesn't dig very deep but goes from one party to another because he is sore at the party in power.

This has long been recognized as natural in elections. It has happened for decades past when voters have expressed their resentments. But the way to offset it is to get out the apathetic vote—those who are not resentful. This takes organization and precinct workers. And this year Mr. Eisenhower has failed to inspire his own rank and file. He has been urged again and again to get into the fight, but he still seems under the spell of the worshippers in that New York City group which from the beginning has told him he was a phenomenon in politics who needed only to appear once or twice, smile to the public and all would be well at the polls. But it is dawning on some of the amateur advisers that no president can transfer his popularity to his party in a congressional election.

There is one thing a Republican president can do, and that's to build up the prestige of his party and tell people why the Republican party deserves their allegiance and support. Democratic presidents like Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman worked hard between campaigns. They knew that 80 per cent of the voters make up their minds before the national conventions do the nominating. But Mr. Eisenhower evidently didn't know this—or nobody told him the facts of political life. If they did, he must have been indifferent to that advice.

"Now Look--- We'll Need a Better Slogan Than That"

Famed Faulkners' Mother, 82, Is 'Grandma Moses' Of South

"GREAT GRANNY" MAUD FALKNER: Signs her name without the "u" but her art's in 48 states.

By CLARK PORTEOUS

OXFORD, Miss.—(NEA)—The "Grandma Moses" of the South may well be "Great Granny" Falkner, who doesn't have to take a back seat in the talent department because of her two famous writing sons, William and John W. T. Falkner.

Mrs. Maud Falkner, who will be 82 next Thanksgiving, has considerable creative talent of her own, as a painter.

Mrs. Falkner earns her living painting pictures and keeps up the big, high-ceilinged, roomy house near the town square in Oxford, home of the University of Mississippi.

She lives alone in the house her late husband built, doing her own cooking and keeping the seven-room house immaculate, but finding plenty of time to paint in her dining room. No fancy studio or special lighting for "Great Granny."

A doll-like, pert old lady, she stands four feet 11, and wouldn't weigh more than 85 pounds all dressed up. But as her son, John, puts it, she is "as tough as whip-lash."

Mrs. Falkner has been painting and selling pictures since 1941, without fanfare or publicity, and believes her pictures should bring a better price. She now has pictures in all 48 states, having sold them through people who have seen or heard of her work.

It's no mistake that she spells her name "Falkner" while her writing sons spell it "Faulkner." Col. William Clark Falkner, grandfather of Mrs. Falkner, dropped the "u" many years ago. He was the railroad builder, lawyer and politician who wrote as a hobby, and his long novel, "White Rose of Memphis," is still read in the Mid-South. He wrote a book of poems in 1851, which means there has been creative talent in the Falkner family for 103 years, and novelist John says he has been told that's a record for this county.

Col. Falkner, great grandfather of the two novelists, was shot to death in Ripley, Miss., in a political dispute. As student Maud Butler, Mrs. Falkner once studied art for two weeks at Mississippi State College for Women, painted some nice things as a young woman, but gave up art and reared a family of four boys, including William, the Nobel Prize winner, and John. The writing Falkners put the "u" back into their names because William's first publisher put it in, and William didn't care.

"Great Granny" didn't do any painting for 35 years. After her husband died, she just resumed—without lessons.

Folks began to like the things she did, and offered to buy them, so Mrs. Falkner became a professional just like that.

She likes to copy the work of great painters, does fine copies from miniatures. She sells her work at from $5 for a small one to $50 for a 22-by-28-inch picture. In addition to making copies, she does things out of her own head—landscapes featuring hunting dogs and quail, Negro cabin scenes, and other things she recalls from childhood. She also does portraits, either from life or from a picture.

Mrs. Falkner estimates she has painted about 500 pictures since 1941, and has sold most of them.

Materials are easily gathered near by.

British thatchers use bundles of wheat straw or Norfolk reed, in Normandy, Brittany and other parts of France, reed straw is preferred. The mud, bamboo or reed huts of the tropics are topped with palm fronds.

Can Last 50 Years

A good thatching job takes two months or more for one man to complete, and lasts 25 to 50 years with minor repairs every 10 or 12 years. On old houses the new thatch is laid over the old, after leaks have been patched. Thus some roofs are two or three feet thick and last centuries.

Bundles of straw or reed are pegged to a lacework of poles laid over the rafters. Starting at the eaves, the courses overlap, shinglelike. Each course is made fast by slender, horizontal poles held down by hairpin-shaped wooden pegs driven in with a mallet. Gable edges are secured with twine. Loose ends of straw are trimmed away with shears.

Some 800 Englishmen, and one woman, are listed as members of the Association of Master Thatchers, and most of them have a waiting list of jobs.

The craft has been handed down from father to son for many centuries. Now, because of the shortage of skilled thatchers, the British government sponsors an apprenticeship program under the English equivalent of the "GI Bill."

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

NEA Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Americans just think they're living-it-up too much these days and that the pace of existence in the U. S. is a killing one.

This notion has been spooned out for a long time but doctors are beginning to debunk it. They're saying that the pace may be too slow, in fact, for best health.

Another popular idea that needs more light shed on it is the claim that there's something inherent in the American way of life which makes death from heart diseases more prevalent in the U. S. than in any other country.

There are holes in these statistics and they may lie, doctors now claim.

These changes in thinking were revealed here recently during the Second World Congress of Cardiology and the 27th Scientific Session of the American Heart Association. The country's outstanding specialists and famous surgeons from all over the world were present.

"EVERY GENERATION thinks that its existence is more hectic, more hazardous, more significant and more strenuous than the past one," says Dr. Irvine H. Page of Cleveland, one of the most famous high blood pressure specialists in the country.

"You hear claims that such things as the cold war upset people to the extent that it hurts their health," he says. "That just isn't true as far as heart troubles are concerned, anyway," he claims, "because here are too many other factors that go into causing them."

Dr. Irving S. Wright, another heart specialist from New York, expresses the same point of view. "I'm unimpressed with the so-called fast pace of American life as being any factor in the country's alleged high death rate from heart disease," he states.

"In fact," he says, "I'm not altogether convinced that the United States does have such a high mortality rate due to heart disorders, compared to other countries."

BOTH WRIGHT AND PAGE point out that the existence of so many older people in the U. S., due to better medicine which keeps them alive longer, accounts for the seemingly high rate of deaths from heart trouble.

"In a lot of these countries, especially in Asia, where they claim to have low heart disease death rates, you find that the average person doesn't live long enough to die from a heart attack," points out Dr. Page.

"If the people in those countries lived longer it's obvious that a lot more of them would have a chance to die from various heart disorders, too," he insists. "But they're killed by something else before they get the chance," he adds.

Both Page and Wright also challenge the reliability of statistics from other countries bearing on this subject. "The Scandinavian countries, England, and maybe one or two other European countries, probably keep figures on the causes of death about as accurately as we do in the U. S.," says Dr. Wright.

"But it's obvious that in India, for instance, a lot of people die and are buried with no examination made of what they died from," he says.

ONE OF THE GOALS of this international gathering was to try to isolate the specific causes of heart diseases peculiar to various countries. But the variance in the reliability of statistics made this difficult, most doctors agreed.

Practically all of the U. S. doctors there did admit that there are probably two elements in American life, not present to the same extent in many other countries, which tend somewhat to increase the average American's chances of getting heart diseases.

One, pointed out by Dr. Page, is the fact that Americans are becoming sedentary in their way of life. Greater use of automobiles, more labor-saving devices in homes and factories and TV viewing which keeps people sitting in their homes, all contribute a little to this condition.

And physical inactivity, more doctors are claiming all the time, is bad for the heart.

The other element in American living bad for the heart, the doctors agree, is a high fat diet enjoyed by most Americans. Fatty substances tend to collect on the linings of arteries and make the pumping of blood more difficult for the heart.

"But we can't be positive about any of these things in regard to heart disease and modern living," one doctor claims, "because medical records show that people were dying from heart diseases before they had high fat diets and cold wars."

Try And Stop Me By BENNETT CERF

When Mr. Nichols moved into his Vermont retreat one day in June, the problem presented itself of how to get rid of his garbage. "Get yourself a pig," suggested a knowing native, and that's just what Mr. Nichols did. He bought a skinny little one from Farmer Sheehan for ten dollars.

Came September, and the New York-bound Mr. Nichols proposed to sell the pig, now grown fat and sleek, back to Farmer Sheehan. The latter would offer only five dollars for it.

"How come?" demanded Nichols. "When it was a lot smaller, you made me pay you double that sum."

"True," agreed Farmer Sheehan. "But you've got to remember you had the use of it all summer."

Acute Attacks Of Gout Often Due To Food, Alcohol

By EDWIN P. JORDAN M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Gout is a most interesting disease, though not a very common one. It's cause or causes are still somewhat obscure, though perhaps most students of the disease agree in general that it is an inherited defect of metabolism (tissue functioning) which causes some people to manufacture more uric acid than they can use or eliminate.

Certainly gout is one of the most painful of all human disorders. It is principally a disease of men and only about one case in 20 is in women.

When typically, an acute attack starts rather unexpectedly with great pain at the base of one of the big toes. It may, of course, start near some other joint. The pain is sharp and often wakes the victim from a sound sleep. Tenderness is extreme; even the weight of the bed clothes is often too much to bear.

AN ACUTE ATTACK is frequently brought on by overindulgence in food or alcoholic beverage. A good many of those who suffer an attack report an unusually rich or large meal immediately preceding the onset of their pain and quite often will have taken wine or some other alcoholic beverage.

At the present time there is some difference of opinion on the importance of dieting but probably most physicians who treat the disease still forbid those foods which contain a chemical substance called purine in large quantity. Among these foods containing much purine are liver, sweetbreads, beef kidneys, brains, meat extracts, sardines, anchovies and many gravies.

BY PROPER KNOWLEDGE of diet and sometimes by the addition of one or two drugs, it is often possible to prevent attacks of acute gout or at least to make them come less often. In those who have had acute gout for years, a chronic form often appears which doctors now call gouty arthritis.

In this phase of gout, crystal-like substances are deposited in or near the joints. These cannot be dissolved, but are not very painful between acute attacks. However, these crystals, called urates, can become so numerous that they are disfiguring, some reaching the size of hen's eggs or even larger. Occasionally they break through the skin and drain out for a long time.

THERE ARE ALSO certain drugs which are useful both in acute attacks and in reducing the number of attacks. Curiously enough, cortisone or ACTH if given at the right time will halt the progress of an attack, but if these preparations are stopped without other measures being simultaneously used the attack comes on later anyway.

A recent letter from "worried wife" says that her husband has gout and asks about tea. Tea can be allowed. She also asks about cigar smoking and this, too, so far as is known, has no direct effect on gout.

Mother Beaten; Chained To Bed

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP)—A 28-year-old mother told authorities Tuesday her husband whipped her with sticks, gun butts and a rubber hose and chained her in bed with him at night.

Mrs. Doris Blackmore was hospitalized in serious condition. She is the mother of five children ranging in age from 2 to 8.

Her 33-year-old husband Cecil pleaded innocent at his arraignment to charges of assault with intent to do bodily harm. He was held in county jail after failing to post $5,000 bond.

In a signed statement, Mrs. Blackmore said the beatings took place over a two-month period, "sometimes twice a day." She said her husband twice broke gun stocks in beating her over the head and shoulders.

Undersheriff Claude Emrick said Blackmore orally admitted beating his wife but denied breaking the gunstocks on her. The officer quoted Blackmore, a farmer, as saying he was jealous of his wife but did not explain why.

DUCKING PLAYS

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1♣	Pass	2♣	Pass
3♣	Pass	3♥	Pass
3♣	Pass	6♣	Pass

West giving due consideration to South's two-suit bidding, was on the verge of leading a trump, but he decided that this might pick up the queen of trumps in partner's hand, so West settled on the safer lead of the heart queen.

South won and inspected the dummy with care. Obviously, he could not afford to waste dummy's trump honors on heart-ruffing—so he would have to establish the club suit.

That logical decision made,

Waak of Rock and Mrs. Waino Laine of Marquette.

South thought for another full minute, then led his singleton club and finessed the ten.

East took the trick and, feeling that South would not have made his club play with a singleton, returned a club with the idea that his own partner would ruff, but it was South who ruffed this return. (Actually, it didn't matter what East did after taking his club queen.)

Now South cashed dummy's trumps and returned to his hand with the ace of diamonds to draw the rest of the trumps. The king of diamonds then furnished entry for the established club suit.

South's unusual first-round duck in clubs was planned to take care of a 4-2 break in both clubs and spades. He was thus in position to ruff the second round of clubs without being overruffed—a vital precaution.

Stowaway Starved For 11 Days Sent Back To Germany

NEW YORK (AP)—A young stowaway, who lived in hiding for 11 days without food or water in order to get to America, was headed for a return trip to Germany.

Immigration authorities seized 18-year-old Alfred Oestmann after he was discovered in the sealed hold of the German freighter Barenstein Tuesday.

Astonished seamen watched Oestmann crawl from the hold, which had been sealed when the Barenstein left Bremen Sept. 24. The hold was not supposed to be opened until the ship reaches Baltimore next week, but a seaman lifted the hatch after docking in Brooklyn to get some rope he remembered was stowed there.

Dirty and dazed by the sunlight, Oestmann collapsed weakly on the deck. His ordeal had reduced his normal 150 pounds to 90. Seamen on the freighter said the youth would have died had the hold remained closed until reaching Baltimore.

Immigration officials scheduled his return to Germany on a ship sailing today.

Prize Winner Says Newspaper Fills Real Need

(EDITOR'S NOTE)
The first prize winning essay in the open division of the Escanaba Daily Press contest as a feature of National Newspaper Week was submitted by Miss Hilla Karpinnen, 216 S. 17th St., Escanaba. The essay is published below.

By MISS HILLA KARPINEN
The 1943 census figures showed me that the newspaper is a great American institution for there were at that time 2000 dailies and 1100 weeklies with a combined circulation of 44,392,829 for the dailies and some 20,000,000 for the weeklies. It meant that a newspaper was available to every family in the U. S.

Keeping this in mind, I noted how efficiently the paper offered something to appeal to everyone—news, editorials, political news, commentaries, columns, sports, stories on crime, stories about prominent personalities, articles on finance, features on fashions, child care, and homemaking for housewives, special articles on religion, science, private enterprise, etc., and countless other features—and the power and the wide spread influence of my newspaper struck me forcefully. For my newspaper, as one of the numerous papers published and with a circulation that is only a small percentage of the total, ranks however, with the others next to the public schools as the greatest educational factor in the world.

When I discuss newspaper articles with many of our citizens who have had little formal education I am impressed by the independent "outside reading" they have done.

Opposes Public Apathy
They have learned about the processes and activities of our government and of our free enterprise through the newspaper. They have formed their own opinions on the basis of what they have read. They have selected the representatives to our legislatures, they have helped to correct abuses and injustices, and they have made their influence felt as citizens in countless ways.

I think that too many Americans are apathetic about their rights, privileges, and responsibilities as citizens. If it weren't for the efforts put forth by my newspaper, I hate to think what would happen. The paper carries the propaganda, the platform, and the criticisms made by both political parties and the paper explains the existing issues and the reasons why they exist. It always amazes me when I see how quickly the newspaper can teach a mass of people of differing opinions to think of the same things at the same time, and almost in the same way whether it is an issue or a candidate.

The victory won by John Peter Zenger in 1733 gives the editor of my paper the right to say what he wishes in so far as it is good business to do so. But there will be no governmental interference whether he criticizes or flatters the powers-that-be.

World Grows Smaller
The business of news gathering and its publication is indeed one of the marvels of the machine age. The beehive of activity in a news office with teletypes, telephones, rotary presses, etc. is but a small edition of the work done by the AP, UP, and INS, the giant press associations with extensive world coverage. The world has grown smaller and that makes me, as a reader, a part of a large world society. It doesn't seem possible today that Andrew Jackson fought the battle of New Orleans in the War of 1812 two weeks after the war was over because word of the peace had not reached him.

All I can say again is that we would be lost without our newspaper—the crusader for better health, better government, better schools, and improved ways of living and thinking. I hope that we shall keep before us at all times this quotation from George Washington's farewell address, September, 1796: "... Promote, then, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge. In proportion as the structure of government gives force to public opinion, it is essential that the public opinion should be enlightened ..."

$560,000 Highway Project Through Menominee Is Open

MENOMINEE—Barricades were removed late yesterday and Wednesday morning at Lansing State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler authorized formal opening to traffic of 10th Street between 10th and 39th Avenues. Local traffic had been using the highway, which his part of US-41 through Menominee, for the past several weeks.

The reconstruction project was completed at a cost of $560,615.67 by the R. B. Vickery Company, Suamico, and the Koch Construction Company of Milwaukee, which held joint contracts. The pavement is concrete, 44 feet wide and nine inches thick. New curbs and sidewalks were also constructed along the 1.86 miles of new pavement.

The State Highway Department installed new overhead twin automatic signal lights on 10th Avenue at 10th Street and at 13th Street, but from 12 midnight to 6 a. m. each day, the light on 10th Avenue will show at caution, while the lights on 10th and 13th Streets will show red, meaning that 10th Avenue becomes the through street and traffic on both 10th and 13th Streets must stop at the arterials. From 6 a. m. to 12 midnight, the lights will regulate the traffic.

Heart Restored In Mother Of 10

NEW YORK (P) — Mrs. Ivey Bailey, a Canadian farm wife, won't have to give up caring for her 10 foster children — thanks to the success of a delicate heart-enlarging operation.

Mrs. Bailey, 42, of Sutton, Ont., started raising a second family nearly 10 years ago after her own four sons reached the grownup stage.

She started by adopting a little girl, Heather. Soon the Children's Aid Society in Sutton asked Mrs. Bailey to make a foster home for a 2-year-old boy. She agreed, and subsequently took eight more youngsters under her wing.

What's more, she made a temporary home for 14 other children who later were able to return to their own parents.

But as a child, Mrs. Bailey had rheumatic fever which left one heart valve rigid. The ailment in the past few years worsened to the point where she could do very little without becoming totally exhausted.

On Sept. 15, Mrs. Bailey told her children and neighbors she was going on a vacation. In reality, she headed for an operation at Flower & Fifth Avenue Hospitals here.

Surgeons restored the rigid heart valve until they had it working normally. Wednesday they told Mrs. Bailey her battle was won.

"If I hadn't had the operation I would soon have been forced to give up all my foster children," she said. "That's what I didn't want to do. I wouldn't give up one of them willingly."

Kalamazoo Man, 83,
Found In Swamp
With Grandson, 3

KALAMAZOO (P) — A shivering, exhausted 83-year-old man and his three-year-old grandson were rescued from a swamp near midnight Wednesday by an army of 300 citizens and police.

The posse tramped through thick underbrush in Managil swamp for more than five hours before finding Joseph Shawark and his grandson, Dean Decker, asleep in his arms.

The pair had gone mushroom hunting about 2 p. m. and failed to come home for supper. When found, Shawark was sitting on a stump, near collapse with his clothing ripped from wandering through brush and the boy in his arms. Neither was hurt.

Both were carried from the swamp and driven home, seven miles away. Sheriff's deputies said Shawark was too dazed to tell how he had wandered so far.

NEW YORK (P) — The stock market presented a mixed appearance today with trading quiet in the early afternoon.

Steels were the outstanding major group. Gains ran to around 2 points at the outside while losses seldom went as far as a point.

Student Tells Of Importance Of Newspapers

(The winner of first prize in the student division of the contest is Cynthia Sogard, 900 S. 16th St., Escanaba High School Senior. Miss Sogard's essay on the subject, "What My Daily Newspaper Means to Me" follows.)

By CYNTHIA SOGARD
Learning about the world situation, having important incidents or situations explained to me by intelligently written editorials, making business transactions through the classified ads and various other advertisements, being entertained by special features, and knowing about local people and events are all made possible for me by my daily newspaper. The right of the American people to have a free press helps me to be a well informed citizen, as well as provides me with material which broadens my sense of humor; thus, closely connected with my personality is my daily newspaper.

To read the evening paper and omit the comic strips is to break a tradition in the American way of life; it is sacrilege. The audacious activities of Major Hoople are just as amusing to me now as they were to my parents 20 years ago. Such special features as witty columns, crossword puzzles, jokes, and serial stories add up to pleasure spent moments.

Found Lost Dog

When deciding which show to attend or which TV program to watch, I don't know what I would do if I did not have the television schedule to refer to or the movie advertisements to look at. The importance of the lost and found column never occurred to me until the day it became my only means of finding my lost dog. In their neatly printed columns, each classified ad signifies a need of some person in town. Learning quickly in a sophisticated pose, models in advertisements look down at me as the charms of their apparel is proclaimed. Since I hope to deal in the illustrating of mannequins for a career, the layouts of these daily advertisements provide me with educational material. The American mind is greatly influenced by advertising done in this daily fashion.

My curiosity toward fellow townsmen and local events is insatiable; consequently, I ask, "How else could I get a better conception of local happenings than by reading the coverage in my daily paper?" Births, deaths, and marriages are announced in this socially accepted manner. To be able to find out when a meeting convenes, who was elected to a club office, or what time church will begin may be quickly achieved by flipping through the evening paper.

If the average American could not turn to the sports page to see if his favorite team had come out on top, his day would not be complete. Curiosity for such matters may sound trite in comparison to curiosity for such a topic as the world situation, but everyday events are important in everyone's daily life. Man's curiosity must be fulfilled, and the daily newspaper is one way to satisfy it.

Epoch Of History
To be able to read accounts of activities which are occurring all over this world at all times is only possible because of many of our predecessor's inventions. As Colonel Robert R. McCormick said, "More world-enriching than steam or sailboat, was the speech-making intention of the printing press." Reading the accurately reported accounts of world affairs which the American citizen has at his fingertips is not only a right, but a privilege. For me, one of the greatest benefits of the daily newspaper is the intelligently written editorial which explains in concise common terms the actual meaning and importance of the world news. To have a basic knowledge of world crises is, I believe, the duty of every citizen, therefore, the editorial page is a necessity for the American people so they might have this basic comprehension of the world situation.

Owen Lattimore Indicted Again

WASHINGTON (P) — Owen Lattimore, controversial Far Eastern specialist, was indicted today on charges of falsely denying he had been a "follower of the Communist line" and a "promoter of Communist interests."

The new two-count perjury indictment was returned by a federal grand jury before U. S. District Judge Edward A. Tamm, in effect it substitutes for parts of an earlier indictment which had been thrown out by the courts.

U. S. Atty. Leo A. Rover told reporters he will move to have the new indictment consolidated with the five remaining counts of the older indictment returned against Lattimore in December 1952.

Two of the seven counts of the original indictment were dismissed by the courts. One of the dismissed counts — the key one — alleged Lattimore falsely denied before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee that he had been a Communist sympathizer or promoter of Red causes.

The courts held the word "sympathizer" was too vague. The new indictment nowhere uses the word "sympathizer."

Michigan May Sue Canada For Pollution Of St. Clair River

OTTAWA, Ont. (P) — Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard of Michigan today threatened to sue Canada for damages caused by pollution of Lake St. Clair and the St. Clair River by Canadian industries.

Appearing before the International Joint Commission, the agency in control of boundary Great Lakes water, Millard said if the governments of Canada and Ontario do not take action, Michigan will begin suit before "this commission or to some other mutually satisfactory commission of arbitration."

Lake Level Rises

GRAND HAVEN (P) — Heavy rainfall during the weekend has raised the Lake Michigan level 3 1/2 inches after practically no decline in the water mark from August to September. The U. S. Engineering Office said last month's average level was 581.4 feet above sea level, compared with 581.5 in August.

Nancy and Miss Wister sat on opposite sides of a small sun-room that overlooked the lake. Dunn was not at all sure he liked the changes in Miss Wister. Certainly contact with the Carlsons had made her quite different from the efficient fixture in the outer office of the Pine Detective Agency. Perhaps his past opinions had been colored by Miss Wister's past performances. He could never forget her loyalty, the things she had done.

Yet her obvious lying, the viciousness of her temper in the attack on Mrs. Gelstap, made her an obvious suspect if the death of Angelica proved other than accidental.

Sheriff Agnes said, "Do you want to add anything to your previous statement, Miss Wister?" She had reassured her formal, sheriff's role.

"No, I don't think so."

"Perhaps you will change your mind when I tell you the Denver police have searched your apartment?"

A flood of color crept up Miss Wister's neck, made her ruddy cheeks even redder. "You had no right to do that." She did not raise her voice, looked down at the clenched hands in her lap. Yet even without bodily motion it was evident that every muscle was tense, that she waited for a blow she still hoped would not come.

"The Denver police were very much interested in your photographs," Agnes went on inexorably.

Miss Wister shot an agonized glance in Dunn's direction.

"Perhaps Mr. Dunn can tell us more about them?" the sheriff went on. She looked across the room toward Nancy.

He said, "Miss Wister had not discussed her taste in photographs all."

"Odd," Sheriff Agnes snapped, "because you are the subject of the mail."

"Not odd at all," Jim said modestly. "I'm really remarkably photogenic." He risked a wink at Nancy, saw the answering twinkle in her eyes. He found time to feel a little sorry for Agnes. Because for the first time since their meeting, Nancy looked at the sheriff with speculation. Jim was happy. He felt that the beginning of a barrier had been blasted away, that he was no longer walled away from complete understanding with his wife.

Miss Wister said softly, "You don't have to torment me. My personal life has nothing to do with this. It's none of your business."

Agnes Argyle realized she had lost, instead of gaining, ground with Nancy by this attack on Miss Wister. But she hurried to reveal the reason for the attack, sure that would bring Nancy back under her influence.

"You're in love with Jim Dunn," she accused.

Miss Wister stared at her hands again. Jim watched Nancy's face, kept his own expressionless.

Nancy got to her feet, walked over and put her arm around Miss Wister's shoulders. She faced Agnes Argyle.

"Even at the risk of making my husband much more big-headed than he is, I do have to say this. Why shouldn't Miss Wister be in love with him? It shows her good taste."

Jim saw the appreciation, the relief in Miss Wister's face, the disappointment in Agnes Argyle's. He saw Miss Wister square her shoulders, stiffen her whole body. She had fought for him once that day, and Jim knew the signs. Miss Wister was getting ready to fight again.

Jim and Nancy walked down

GOOD FEEDING

by AL JOHNSON

NORTHERN FLOUR & GRAIN
ESCANABA, MICH.

THE SUCCESS of your marketing starts when pigs are farrowed. At this time, gilts, sows, and young pigs should be fed a profit-packed feed like Occident 35% Pig and Sow Balancer. This way, you know they'll get the choicest animal and vegetable concentrates and pure wholesome minerals... all perfectly balanced to supplement your grain supplies.

AS THE PIGS reach 75 lbs., change to either Occident 40% Hog Concentrate or Occident 30% Hog Supplement depending on your grain supplies. They contain "Multimycin" (Occident's exclusive combination of antibiotics) plus extra protein, minerals and vitamins. Pigs build up fast on these ideal supplements that get them off to market faster... and, on less feed! For most rapid gains keep ear corn or grain sorghum available at all times. With the Concentrate, feed a mixture of 1 part to 4 parts of mixed grain or 3 parts corn. Or, if it works out better on your farm, feed a mixture of 1 part of Occident Supplement to 3 parts of mixed grain or 2 parts of corn. Self-feeding of either of these feeds saves labor and is very satisfactory.

ABOVE 125 LBS. hogs should have all the corn they want and Occident Hog Concentrate or Hog Supplement self-fed. If you're hand-feeding the concentrate, start feeding 1 part to 5 of corn and increase corn until at 225 lbs., pigs are getting only 1 part of concentrate to 6-8 of corn. Occident Hog Supplement can be hand-fed using a mixture of 1 part to 3 of corn at the start and gradually increase to 1 part to 5 of corn at the finish.

COMPLETE FEEDING directions for these feeds are on the back of the sack tags.

COME IN SOON... let us help you plan the most profitable Occident Hog Feeding Program for your farm.

past the boathouse to the edge of the lake. Nancy stopped when they were in a sheltered position, held up her arms. "You haven't kissed me at all today."

That omission was easily and pleasantly remedied.

Nancy pulled away, smiled and sat down on a rock. She said, "What a stinker!"

"Now you've spoiled it. But you did say Miss Wister was in love with me. Of course I knew it all the time, but I'm much too modest for my own good."

"Jim, what's going on around here?"

Dunn sobered instantly. "We're caught in the middle of a family mess."

"I don't see how. Agnes—the sheriff?"

"You haven't seen old Mrs. Oswald yet, have you? Put Agnes Argyle alongside the old lady and you know they have a great deal in common, including blood."

"Stop looking so smug, Jim, what was Agnes trying to do with me?"

"The way it looks," Jim went on, "Agnes was to make friends with you, influence you into seeing only one point of view. You were to turn to her, believe her, trust her, instead of me. Of course that was supposed to infuriate me. Soften me up, so to speak, so I would be ready to fall into Mrs. Hilton's trap. And a nicely baited trap, I must say."

Understanding flooded Nancy's face. "But what does she think I'd be doing?"

"Don't forget Mrs. Hilton was watching through glasses. She saw you in that dark and dowdy outfit of yours. Why should she expect competition from such a frump? She didn't even recognize you at first as the same woman, and she didn't like it a bit when she found out. Let that be a lesson to you to always look your best."

"A nice family," Nancy said. "But all this planning and effort,

Howard Frisbie and Ray Wagemaker, both of Grand Rapids, nabbed a bear apiece while hunting in this area. Frisbie got a 150 pound bear Sunday evening in Delta County, while Wagemaker got a 250 pound bear in Alger County Monday. The men have returned to their homes after staying in cabins north of Rapid River.

Studebaker Displays New Models For 1955

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—The 1955 Studebaker passenger cars, featuring higher hoods, wider styling, increased horsepower and lower prices, went on dealer display Wednesday.

The price tags were $37 to $287 under those on similar 1954 models. The three lines — Champion, Commander and President — all have restyled front ends. The grille extends the entire width of the front fenders and the grille opening extends the width of the hood.

The lines, in 24 different body styles, are the first presented by the Studebaker division of the new Studebaker-Packard Corp. The 1955 Packard line is not expected to be introduced until after Jan. 1.

Guest Preacher For Mission At First Methodist

The First Methodist Church will have as guest preacher during a Spiritual Life Mission next week, Oct. 10 to 17, the Rev. Harold A. Nessel, pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, River Rouge, Mich. Mr. Nessel is known to many Methodists in the Upper Peninsula, having served in Hancock from 1947 to 1951, and as Dean of Michiganamie Methodist Senior Youth Camp two summers during that period.

Mr. Nessel will preach at worship services Sunday, Oct. 10, at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. He will also speak Wednesday and Thursday at 8 p. m. and at a Family Night Supper Tuesday, which will begin at 6:30 p. m.

First Methodist Church is cooperating in this week of special emphasis with all of Methodism in the state of Michigan. The Spiritual Life Mission is a movement to deepen and broaden the Christian life experience of members of the church. It will challenge members to accept spiritual disciplines and re-establish neglected practices of the Christian life, including regular church attendance, family devotions, prayer, Bible reading, tithing and Christian witnessing in daily life.

Persons attending the Sunday morning service will be invited to make a commitment to these habits and others will be called upon in their homes by teams of visitors. Harvey Germanson is chairman of the membership and evangelism commission which is planning the details of the Mission.

The Rev. Byron Hatch, pastor of First Methodist Church, announces that Bark River Methodist Church, also participating in the Mission, will have as guest preacher the Rev. John Czajkowski, pastor of the Methodist Church at Indian River, Mich.

Girl Scouts Will Aid Olympic Games Cause

The Girl Scouts of America will join in helping to launch the first National Olympic Day, Oct. 16, it was announced today by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, president of the United States Olympic committee.

In a wire to Wilson, Mrs. Roy F. Layton, president of the Girl Scouts, said:

"For generations, the Olympic games have been an inspiration to young people everywhere. At no other event are the ideals of sportsmanship so universally acknowledged and demonstrated. Time after time, athletes competing in Olympic games have reminded us of the priceless nature of the individual—his ability to grow, to work and to extend himself almost beyond human limitations to attain an ideal.

"On National Olympic Day, the Girl Scouts of the U. S. A. will be happy to join in a tribute to the Olympic games and all they stand for in today's world."

To Highlight Need
Congress has authorized President Eisenhower to proclaim National Olympic Day as an annual day of rededication to the amateur sports ideal as symbolized by the Olympic games and a date on which to highlight the public support needs of U. S. team participation in the Olympic games.

In a wire of thanks to Mrs. Layton, Wilson said:

"There are many points of common interest and identity between the spirit of the Girl Scout movement and the Olympic cause. The Girl Scouts represent a natural place to begin in our effort to inform the women of America of what the Olympic games stand for and what the ideas behind them mean in child development."

Backing Project
The Girl Scouts will join a growing list of civic and youth organizations working in support of National Olympic Day, Wilson said. The Olympic committee and Life magazine, originators of the National Olympic Day idea, will serve as national liaison between the various participating groups. The project has the backing of prominent religious and education leaders.

It will cost $1.1 million to send U. S. teams to the 1956 Winter and Summer Olympic games in Italy and Australia and to the Pan American games to be held in Mexico City next March. According to Wilson, that is one-third more than the committee has ever needed to raise.

Church Events

Youth Fellowship
The High School Youth Fellowship of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church will meet tonight at 7:30 at the church.

An extra egg white in your refrigerator? Beat it until stiff, then slowly beat in a couple of tablespoons of sugar and a dash of vanilla. Top four pineapple rings with the meringue and bake in a moderate oven until the topping is golden colored. Serve at once as a delicious ending to a meal.

Social-Club

Country Club Fish Fry
The final fish fry of the season will be served at the Escanaba Golf and Country Club Friday evening. Club members and their guests are invited.

Do-Si-Do Club Saturday
The Delta Do-Si-Do Square Dance Club will meet Saturday at 8 p. m. in the Webster School gymnasium. This will be the first session for beginners and all those interested in square dancing are asked to be at the gymnasium promptly at 8. The regular dance program will begin at 9:15. Refreshments will be served.

Judith Ann's Party

Games were played with each guest receiving an award. Judy Leonard was presented with the guest prize. A three-tiered cake centered the table for the party lunch and individual cakes and candy were at each place. Judith Ann received many pretty gifts.

Franklin PTA Meeting
The October meeting of the Franklin Parent Teacher Association, held Tuesday evening in the school auditorium, was attended by 65 members.

In observance of membership month particular emphasis was placed on registration. Mrs. Jesse W. Pomazal, membership chairman, reported on the progress of the membership drive which features an enrollment contest. The class which has the highest percentage of parents registered as members of the Franklin PTA by Oct. 22, will entertain at a theatre party.

A report on plans for the Halloween carnival was given by Mr. and Mrs. Arni Maki, carnival chairmen. Parents were urged to discourage their children from starting trick or treat before Sunday of Halloween week.

Attorney William E. Anderson, program chairman, outlined briefly the programs proposed for the year. Mrs. Joseph S. Dickson, president announced that the school "open house" during American Education Week will take the place of a November meeting.

"Angry Boy" was the title of the interesting and informative film shown following the business meeting. The Rev. Roy. Joseph S. Dickson conducted a lively get-acquainted mixer. Lunch was served by the teachers.

Special Deer Season Permits Move Slowly

LANSING (AP)—Conservation Department officials pondered the lag in applications for special permits to hunt in the Dec. 1 only deer season.

Only 15,000 applications have been filed so far for the $1,000 permits available to shoot bucks, does and fawns in part of the northern third of the Lower Peninsula.

A department spokesman said it is now unlikely that enough applications will be mailed in by the Oct. 10 deadline to make a drawing necessary to determine successful applicants.

"We cannot understand the lag," said Conservation Director G. E. Eddy, "unless it is that money is a little tighter this year and many potential hunters are not sure they can make it."

12-Year Olds On Yule Programs

The company that sponsored the opera put Bill and the other 17 on a series of Christmas cards.

Kent Maps Plan For Fund Drive

Ridings Photo
Russell Kent, Gladstone businessman, has been named Gladstone chairman for the current Red Feather Drive for funds for the Delta County, Community Chest.

Chairman Kent met with Wallace C. Cameron, Oscar Ohman and LeRoy Hamilton, members of his local committee this week to map plans for the local drive.

Block captains are now being chosen to make the house to house canvass in the city and letters will be sent to business firms and industries.

Six organizations will be supplied with funds from the Community Chest, the quota for which has been set at $20,000 for the campaign.

Participating organizations for which the funds are raised are the Boy Scouts of America, the Girl Scouts of America, the Camp Fire Girls, The Salvation Army, the Cod Liver Oil Fund and the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

The drive will get under way on Monday, Oct. 11, and efforts will be made to complete it in two weeks, Chairman Kent states.

Special auto taxes including registration fees, tolls and excise taxes on cars, parts, gasoline and oil now produce more than 5 1/4 billion dollars a year says the Automobile Manufacturers Assn.

The drive will end on or about Nov. 11 and a report on it will be given at the Veterans' Day dinner. Initiation of new members will be held later.

August Mattson Post plans to cooperate in the dance program being sponsored by the Recreation Department through Mrs. Jeanette LeCaptain and Mrs. E. H. Huesener. A ballet bar will be installed in the Legion hall for the convenience of the group. The bar will be constructed by Mr. Huesener.

Pigeons Get Liquor, Bring In 200 More

RUTHERFORD, N. J. (AP)—Here's what they're telling at the Hasselhuhn Williams co.

Seems the company was bothered by about 100 pigeons fluttering around a coal pocket. How to get rid of them was the question.

Up popped Steve Podlowski, an employee, who suggested what he called an "old family remedy." This was to mix a batch of cracked corn with some hard liquor.

Object? To get the birds drunk and keep them away from the coal pocket.

The mixture was mixed. It was spread around the coal yard.

Today about 300 pigeons showed up.

LARGE GEM

The aquamarine, of all precious stones, is found in the largest flawless crystals. Largest gem ever found was a 220-pound aquamarine the size of a nail keg, which yielded 200,000 carats of cut gem stones. It was found near the Brazilian village of Marambaia in 1910.

Home Poisoning Gets Attention

CHICAGO (AP)—A new medical effort is being organized against a potential danger in your own home—the accidental poisoning of children by swallowing common household materials like furniture polish and bleaching agents.

Spearheaded by a group of Chicago doctors who have set up a "poisoning control center," similar projects are operating or being developed in Boston, Cincinnati, New York, Phoenix and Washington, D.C., the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

The idea is to have a systematic, centrally controlled network within a city whereby quickest action can be taken in treating a poisoned child.

Dr. Edward Press of the University of Illinois and several associates described the Chicago program in a scientific exhibit at the AAP's 23rd annual meeting.

They said the commonest substances swallowed among 375 children treated for poisoning in the last year in Chicago were aspirin; petroleum products such as kerosene; rodent killers and insecticides; bleaching agents; and turpentine.

With the Chicago Board of Health acting as a clearing house for information and follow-up action, some 20 hospitals in the Chicago area have been supplied with an 80-page manual outlining poisonous constituents of various household materials and the most recent approved methods of treatment.

Individual doctors who might be house-called on a poison case can call a "Poison Control Committee" member at the Board of Health or one of the participating hospitals if he needs help.

Texas Soldier's Case Protested

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP)—This west Texas city's draft board chairman has resigned because he does not like the life prison sentence meted out to Cpl. Claude Batchelor.

Batchelor, 22, of Kermit, Tex., was convicted by a court-martial at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., last week on charges of collaborating with the enemy and informing on fellow POW's while a captive of the Chinese Reds in Korea.

Draft Board Chairman H. W. Wright said he did not condone collaboration with the Communists but that he thought "brainwashing" and Batchelor's youth should have "been considered."

Batchelor was one of 23 Americans who chose to stay with the Reds after the Korean armistice. Later he and Cpl. Edward Dickenson of Crackers Neck, Va., changed their minds and returned to United Nations control.

Dickenson was tried on charges similar to those against Batchelor and given 10 years in prison at hard labor. He was a prosecution witness against the Texan.

Wright made public Tuesday a letter of resignation he sent to Paul Wakefield, state selective service director, in Austin, Tex. It said in part:

"My conscience will not let me be a part of drafting young men who might later be subject to the severe punishment that was rendered Cpl. Claude Batchelor."

"Although I cannot tolerate anyone who would collaborate with Communists, I am still of the opinion that the court did not take into consideration that this boy was only 16 years old when he entered military service and that you and I know that a large per cent of the older men could not stand up under the severe punishment and brain washing that the Communists are able to force upon their prisoners."

Get Tough With Russia, U. S. Told

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) has called for a return to the days of the Rattle-snake Flag so the Communist will be "afraid to take any action which may possibly call for strong measures on our part."

The president pro tempore of the Senate told a civil defense session at St. Anselm College Tuesday night he is "tired of being afraid of the Russians" and "it is about time the Russians started to be afraid of us."

"I truly believe that the only hope of peace is for us to return to the principles which made this nation great; to cease appeasement; to cease compromise on fundamental principles," he said.

Bridges noted that the first flag of the republic was a coiled rattlesnake with a motto "Don't Tread on Me" and said that "in my opinion, that is the attitude we better adopt in the world today."

"I have tried to find out why we are automatically supposed to allow our enemy to attack first," he declared. "this business of 'After you my dear Alfonso,' if it is going to cost 20 million American lives, Very frankly is distasteful to me."

Jack Benny Gets Better Laughs On TV This Season

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD
NEW YORK (AP)—Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, whose I Love Lucy show was on top of the popularity heap last year, are back again on film as good as ever.

But when their return to the regular spot on CBS-TV was preceded by a live appearance in the Ed Sullivan show, viewers had a perfect chance to compare two ways of bringing them into the living room.

My own opinion was that they were much more effective as live entertainers, despite the high quality of their film operation. Besides, the image on the live program seemed more true to life.

Up to this season it seemed to me Jack Benny was having a struggle, rather a tough one at times, to put himself over on TV. He didn't make me laugh as much as I had anticipated.

But this year things are different, at least for the starter. Maybe it was partly due to the excellent cooperation he had from old standbys, Don Wilson and Rochester. But Benny himself was as near top form as I have ever seen him.

This year, his fifth on television, Benny's schedule calls for appearances every other week from Hollywood, quite an increase over the 12 programs he did last season.

Benny is continuing on radio, now in his 23rd year. His CBS series is on the air in the half-hour preceding the TV show.

With Ray Crandall

Buck Nystrom, former Marquette High School ace and one of the Upper Peninsula's outstanding representatives in college football, was named the "Spartan of the Week" for his play in the game against Iowa . . . Listed as a third-string left guard before the season opened, Nystrom earned a starting assignment against Wisconsin last week because of his terrific showing against Iowa . . . And Nystrom justified the promotion by matching his good performance in the losing battle with the Badgers . . . In fact, he made the tackle on the opening kickoff and was in the thick of things all the way.

From Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, comes word that Joe Corbell, freshman fullback candidate from Gladstone, is on the honor roll . . . Joe is 19 years old, stands 5-10 and weighs 176.

Ray Mariucci of Iron Mountain reports that the Immaculate Conception Church is planning to back a large scale boxing program there . . . Ray hopes to have more Iron Mountain boxers in this year's Upper Peninsula Golden Gloves tournament here.

After seeing only limited action in the first two games of the season (both of which Wyoming lost), former St. Joe Trojan star Pete Kutches broke into the Cowboy lineup with a flash Saturday in the 23-21 win over Denver . . . Tailback Kutches was credited with a bone-jarring tackle which stopped a Denver drive with four minutes left in the game . . . Trailing 21-20, Wyoming pulled the game out of the fire when Joe Mastrogiovanni booted a field goal with two seconds remaining on the clock . . . Kutches carried the ball nine times for 28 yards, threw one pass and punted three times in the ball game . . . He scored his first touchdown in the game.

Abe Milkovich, 1954 Highland Club men's champion, took one last fling at par Tuesday and came up with a classy 35, 1-under at Highland . . . Abe shot even par on eight of the nine holes and dropped one under on the 374-yard seventh . . . Mel Manske fired a 39, Lawrence Beauchamp a 44 and Swede Nelson a 48 in the forenoon.

Broncos Entertain Powers Friday In Homecoming Clash

BARK RIVER—The Bark River Broncos will entertain the Powers Tigers in a homecoming clash Friday afternoon at 1:30 (EST).

Last year Bark River trounced Powers 21-6 in the annual classic between the schools but the Tigers appear much stronger this season. Coach Marv Ropele's Powers team has notched successive victories over Carney, Rock and Iron Mountain Bee, piling up 91 points to six for the opposition. Bark River has lost three straight to Crystal Falls, Rock and Niagara, Wis. The Broncos were idle last weekend and Coach Ed Rutkowski took advantage of the layoff to revamp his offensive formations and to tighten his defenses for the Tigers' single-wing attack.

Show Improvement

"The boys have shown steady improvement in defeat," Rutkowski said. "They've been outclassed but not out-fought in the three losses and will be ready to go all out for the big one Friday," he added.

The starting Bronco lineup will be selected from the following players:

Ends Barry Dahlberg, Roy Nelson, Jiggs Kasbohm and Harold Dahlberg; tackles Walter Moniewiczak and Ronald Kleiman; guards Ted Cota and David Chack; centers John Dugas and Joe Schermer; backs Norman Goedert.

1,000 Pound Marlin Caught Off Peru

CABO BLANCO, Peru (AP)—H. L. Woodard, of Havana, caught a 1,140-pound black marlin off this seaport.

It was the 17th black marlin over 1,000 pounds to be taken off Cabo Blanco since Alfred Glassell, of Houston, Tex., started a spectacular run of thousand-pounders in April, 1952.

In addition to the 1,140 pounder, Woodard boated an 888-pound black marlin, lost three and saw five more. His fish were taken on a 39-thread line.

Midwest Grid Notes

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest football briefs:

Illinois—In a fifth starting lineup switch of the week, Steve Nosek was promoted to first string right end . . . He replaced Charley Butler, 227-pound sophomore from Hot Springs, Ark.

Ohio State—Quarterback Lyn Theis, sidelined for some time by a knee injury, is back in action. Coach Woody Hayes said "the boys just don't seem to be clicking together right" as he fretted over a full-scale two hour drill.

Northwestern—The varsity checked freshmen running off Minnesota split-T patterns and coach Bob Voights said he was pleased with both the offense and defense of his top teams.

Minnesota—Aside from center Chuck Stamschror, who has a bruised shoulder, and guard Elden Dahl, definitely out with a bad knee, the Gophers are in good shape for their first Big Ten test. Pass defense has been keyed in drills.

Michigan—Hopes of upsetting Iowa were jolted by the loss of fullback Lou Buldaci . . . He suffered a bruised shoulder in Michi-

Iron River, Stambaugh Rated 1-2; Will Clash On Friday

The 1954 Upper Peninsula football championship may be decided this week at Nelson Field in Stambaugh when the Iron River Redskins (No. 1) clash with the Stambaugh Hilltoppers (No. 2) in the game of the week.

Iron River held the top position for the sixth straight week this week after turning back a strong Kingsford eleven, 13-0, while idle Stambaugh held to second place on the strength of a 25-20 victory over Iron Mountain a week ago.

From there on down, the positions shifted rudely with upsets all along the line. The Sault Ste. Marie Blue Devils and the Iron Mountain Mountaineers were victims of the biggest upsets as Lon Tom Tipton's Collegiates upset the Blue Devils, 19-13, while Little Norway, after three consecutive defeats, tripped Iron Mountain, 19-15.

Wakefield remained unbeaten in Class C by walloping Baraga 53-19, while little Powers-Spalding High finally had its goal line crossed—last in the Peninsula—by Iron Mountain B although the Tigers won, 46-6.

Negaunee roared over Ishpeming, 55-6, in the 73rd meeting of these ancient rivals. Bob Collins, Escanaba Central, No. 8 this week, which powered over Calumet, 33-0, will get the acid test Sunday at Escanaba when it meets Green Bay Catholic Central, a powerhouse in northern Wisconsin.

Claassen Needs Help; Grid Picks Go Sour

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Last week's record of only 33 correct guesses in 49 chances suggests the possibility that maybe Dusty Rhodes should be sent in to pinch-hit for the regular forecaster.

Last week's puny success dropped the year's average to .761 with 99 right and 31 wrong.

Here are this weekend's selections:

Oklahoma over Texas: The Sooners had two weeks to get ready for this one.

Duke over Purdue: Even when you win from Notre Dame, as Purdue did last week, you aren't quite the same the following weekend.

Southern California over Texas Christian: Jon Arnett gets better and better.

Wisconsin over Rice: This could be billed as Ameche vs. Moegle and the pick still would be the same.

Iowa over Michigan: Michigan has a hospital list.

Notre Dame over Pittsburgh: Pitt has no Len Dawson.

Penn State over Virginia: Lehigh almost defeated Virginia and Penn State has downed Illinois.

Skipper over the others without comment:

Friday Night

Davidson over Presbyterian, Denver over Montana, Miami (Fla.) over Holy Cross.

SATURDAY

EAST: Army over Dartmouth, Yale over Columbia, Cornell over Harvard, Princeton over Penn.

Cross Country At Rock Friday

ROCK — The Central League cross country meet will be held Friday at halftime of the Rock-Gladstone Bee team football game, which starts at 2.

All schools of the league are eligible to compete and Nahma, Rapid River and Eben will enter full squads. Cooks, Trenary and Perkins will likely have entrants, meet manager Vic Mankiewicz states. Rock and Bark River, with football games on, will not compete.

The meet will be the first such competition in the Central League. Officials will be Ray Rungtette and Norman Slough.

Largest entry is expected from Nahma, runnerup in the U. P. C. D-E finals at Houghton last year.

The Duke University football record lists a 96-0 victory over Furman in 1891. That season a touchdown was worth four points instead of six.

Boxer Archie Moore fought for 16 years before he won the lightweight championship in his 128th fight.

Gladstone, Soo Share Great Lakes Loop Lead

The Gladstone Braves, sharing the Great Lakes Conference lead with Sault Ste. Marie, face an important weekend in their bid for their fourth straight conference victory.

Coach Don Potenbauer's Braves will travel to Newberry to meet the Indians of new coach Bill Jennings. Newberry has a record of one win, two losses and a tie in the conference, having dropped a 28-14 verdict to Manistique's Emeralds last week.

In three conference starts the Braves have come out on top of Marquette, Manistique and Munising. Their only defeat this season was a non-conference loss to Escanaba Catholic Central in the season's opener.

The Soo Blue Devils, who suffered their first defeat this season to Canadian Soo last Saturday, will be at Marquette Saturday. The Devils will be heavy favorites to make the Redmen their fourth straight conference victim. Marquette is winless in five starts. Negaunee, second in the standings with three wins and a tie, steps out of the conference with a home stand against Houghton.

The Manistique Emeralds, battling .500 with two wins and two defeats, will be at Munising Saturday. Ishpeming has an open date this weekend.

Gladstone Bee Team Plays Rock Friday

GLADSTONE — Coach Eldon Keil's Gladstone High School B football eleven travels to Rock Friday afternoon for a game with Rock High. The opening kickoff is set for 2.

A tough battle is expected by Coach Keil as records indicate Rock has a better than average team this season.

Colorado Is Only Unscored On Team

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Colorado stood alone today as the only major college football team in the land with an uncrossed goal-line — and the season is only in its infancy.

The Buffaloes have blanked Drake, Colorado A and M, and Kansas, and rate as the eighth ranking team in total yardage yielded, according to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Richmond leads in total defense leadership despite giving up 233 yards to VMI last week. Syracuse heads the pass defense list.

Mississippi heads the country in defense along the ground, having given up only 18 yards to Villanova last week for an average of 44.7 per game.

Don Knauth, co-captain of the Michigan State football team, is saluted as "Dr. Don" by his teammates. He had a straight "A" average in all his classes last term.

OUT OF ACTION—Mike Goyerac, defensive first stringer for Catholic Central, will be sidelined Sunday afternoon when Coach Tom St. Germain's gridders take on the tough Green Bay Central Catholic Cadets. Goyerac, rugged tackler, suffered an aggravation of a knee injury in the Calumet game. He joins Jim Weber, senior tackle, on the Central sidelines. Weber suffered a back injury in practice last week and is out for the season. (Daily Press Photo)

New College Grid Coaches Failing To Solve Problems

NEW YORK — Most of the 17 colleges that made changes in football coaching ranks after last season are finding out a new head coach is not always the answer to a successful season.

A check today shows that of the 17 coaches, nine of them in their first year as head men, have won only nine games. They have lost 35.

Only Murray Warmath, who replaced Wes Fesler at Minnesota, and Darrell Royal of Mississippi State have winning records after the early weeks of the football campaign.

Warmath Won Two

Warmath's Gophers have trounced Nebraska and Pittsburgh while Royal, who took over Warmath's old job, defeated Memphis State, lost to Tennessee and then overwhelmed Arkansas State for a 2-1 performance.

Terry Brennan, 26-year-old coach who replaced Frank Leahy at Notre Dame, started off with a victory over Texas, but then the Irish were upset last Saturday by Purdue.

The football situation at Pennsylvania is a very grim one for head coach Steve Sebo. Sebo was appointed last winter after serving as an assistant to Clarence (Biggie) Munn at Michigan State. Penn has lost its first two games with Duke and with William and Mary.

Daugherty Moved Up

At Michigan State, Hugh (Duff) Daugherty was promoted from an assistant to head coach when Munn advanced to the athletic directorship. His club, last year's Big Ten Rose Bowl winners, lost its first two games to powerful Iowa and Wisconsin.

Earl Edwards, another ex-Michigan State assistant, moved to North Carolina State, where his team has been defeated three times. State has scored only 12 points while its opponents have compiled 67.

Charles V. Mather, in his first year as Kansas head coach, has seen his Jayhawkers trounced by Texas Christian, UCLA and Colorado.

Blanton Collier, former Cleveland Brown assistant, took over at Kentucky when Paul Bryant moved to Texas A. M. Collier's inexperienced Wildcats have one victory against two losses. Bryant's Aggies also have one victory and two setbacks.

Ferzacca Lost Two

Iowa State, coached by Vince Di Francesca, and Detroit's Wallace Fromhart each have one victory and two setbacks.

Three other coaches lost their first two games. They were Francis X. Regan at Villanova, Tulane's Andy Pilney and F. L. Ferzacca at Marquette. It's the first year as a head coach for Regan and Pilney.

Out in the Far West Neil Stanley, Roy (Robbie) Robertson and Joe Lindahl have found tough going. Stanley's Idaho eleven has dropped three games. Robertson's club at Colorado College and Lindahl's team at Colorado State also have lost the same number without a victory.

Buddy Parker Respects Rams

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT — Coach Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions has a deep (and understandable) respect for the Los Angeles Rams.

"If we can hold them to 21 or 22 points, I figure we'll have a good chance of winning."

Parker was referring to Sunday's vital game between the Lions and Rams in Briggs Stadium.

"You won't find a more potent team in the league," he said. "They have the same team as in the past, meaning they score a lot of points. If you can hold them in the 20s, you're doing well."

The statistics stand behind Parker. Last year the Rams scored 366 points (to Detroit's 271). The West Coast team has picked up where it left off, scoring 72 points in two league games—highest figure in the circuit.

The Rams trounced Baltimore 48-0 in the season's opener, then played a bruising 24-24 tie with the San Francisco 49ers.

The Lions have beaten the Rams only four times since 1946, while losing 13 times. Los Angeles whipped Detroit twice last year, by solid margins of 12 and 13 points.

The Rams boast a super-powered offense, headed by quarterback Norman Van Brocklin. He has completed 27 of 44 passes this season.

The Rams enter the game as three to four point underdogs.

Conley Isn't Happy With Mound Salary

BOSTON — Pitcher Gene Conley of the Milwaukee Braves says he is "disappointed" because he was unable to agree on 1955 salary terms in a four-hour contract talk with general manager John Quinn.

Conley, now playing basketball with the professional Boston Celtics, said Wednesday that he and Quinn talked in Milwaukee recently.

The 23-year-old 6-8 pitcher had a 14-9 record with Milwaukee last season and hoped to get a good boost in pay for next year. It is estimated that he received around $10,000 last season.

Tonight Is Earliest Hockey Opening Date

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League gets off to its earliest opening in its 38-year history tonight with games at Detroit and Montreal.

At Detroit the Red Wings, the Stanley Cup champions, entertain the Toronto Maple Leafs. At Montreal, the Canadiens, Stanley Cup runnerup, tangle with the Chicago Blackhawks.

On Saturday all six teams are in action with Chicago at Toronto, Boston at Montreal and New York at Detroit. The 70-game schedule ends March 20.

The Red Wings again are favored to win the league title, but many experts believe the Canadiens and the Leafs are considerably stronger and may make it rough going for the Wings.

Dressen Would Like To Get Robinson

WASHINGTON — There are those who'll tell you Jackie Robinson is near the end of the trail as a major league ball player. But not Chuck Dressen.

"Sure I'd take Jackie," Dressen told newsmen Wednesday as he took over as manager of the Washington Senators. "He's got plenty of good baseball left in him."

Dressen conceded, however, that there wasn't much chance of getting the 36-year-old Negro star. Dressen said he didn't think seven National League clubs would waive him out of the league.

Robinson, who played for Dressen in the 1952-53 pennant winning seasons at Brooklyn, saw limited action this year as the Dodgers wound up second.

NAMED PENICILLIN

Penicillin first was recognized and named by Alexander Fleming, an Englishman, in 1929. He saw it as a form of penicillium, the name given tufts of spores formed on mold or fungus.

Pickup Noted In State Jobs

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Employment Security Commission reported a brightening employment picture in some outstate Michigan areas.

The agency said the improvement was in areas not heavily dependent on developments in the auto industry.

Unemployment in the Battle Creek idle labor reserve declined more than 30 per cent since March.

"In addition," the commission said, "unemployment dropped below peak 1954 levels in the Benton Harbor and Jackson labor markets."

The MESCC said that model changeovers in the auto industry cut more than 50,000 workers from the payrolls between Aug. 15 and Sept. 15. This boosted the state's idle labor supply from about 235,000 in mid-August to 290,000 in mid-September.

The commission said completion of the changeovers should return employment in the auto industry to close to the August level of 415,000 by mid-November.
